

Form 3: National Police Clearance

All volunteer bushfire fighters should have a national police clearance. Visit the WA Police website for more information and to apply.

www.police.wa.gov.au

The screenshot shows the Western Australia Police Force website. At the top left is the WA Police logo. The main header reads "Western Australia Police Force". To the right of the header is a search bar and links for "FAQ", "Media Releases", "Sitemap", and "Accessibility". Below the header is a navigation menu with "Home", "About Us", "Crime", "Our Community", "Traffic", "Your Safety", "Online Services", and "Contact Us". The "Online Services" link is highlighted. Below the navigation is a large orange banner with the text "Police Direct»" and a breadcrumb trail: "WA Police Force / Online Services / National Police Certificates". The main content area has a heading "National Police Certificates" and a paragraph explaining that the National Police Checking Service (NPCS) is experiencing delays. It includes a link "Click here to read more." and a paragraph defining a National Police Certificate (NPC). Below this is a screenshot of the "Application for WA National Police Certificate" form, showing a progress bar with "Your details", "Payment", and "Confirmation" steps. The "Your details" step is active. To the right of the main content is a sidebar titled "ALSO IN ONLINE SERVICES:" with a list of services: "Policing Major Events", "Traffic Forms", "Crime - Property, Graffiti, Check My Crime", "Infringement Payments and Enquiries", "Crime Stoppers - Report Crime and Suspicious Behaviour", "Licensing Services - Firearms, Security, Pawnbrokers & Second-Hand Dealers", "National Police Certificates", and "Report Stolen or Damaged".