

Workplace Behaviours

Adopting positive behaviours and attitudes in the workplace can significantly enhance a work environment

Understanding workplace behaviours is crucial for fostering a positive and productive atmosphere.

This workshop is designed to empower workers with the knowledge and tools necessary to navigate the complexities of workplace interactions effectively.

This workshop will help organisations to promote a positive culture by learning how to contribute to a respectful and inclusive workplace, enhancing team collaboration and morale. The workshop aims to increase compliance by providing insight on how to understand the legislative framework that governs required workplace behaviours. Additionally, the 3hour session aims to increase conflict resolution skills and increase workers' awareness of support options.

This workshop provides participants with the opportunity to:

- ▶ Understand diversity and its impact on workplace interactions.
- ▶ Clarifying Required Behaviours by learning about the expected behaviours and standards within a Local Government context.
- ▶ Develop an understanding of legislation around required workplace behaviours.
- ▶ Gain practical skills for identifying and addressing conflicts of interest and grievances.
- ▶ An overall understanding on how to approach challenging or unacceptable behaviours utilising internal policies/procedures.
- ▶ Discover various support systems available, ensuring you know where to turn for help when needed.

More information

For more information or to book this workshop for your local government contact the LGIS People Risk Team at peoplerisk@lgiswa.com.au or call 9483 8888.

